ENGINEERED VENEERS

With over 30 years of experience in the world of plywood, Greenply Industries Limited is a flourishing vessel of prospects. As one of India's largest interior infrastructure company, Greenply is equipped to manufacture state-of-the-art plywood, blockboards, flush doors, decorative veneers, PVC/WPC boards and uPVC doors, besides other allied products. Today, it is a household name, with a glittering presence in 300 cities across 21 states.

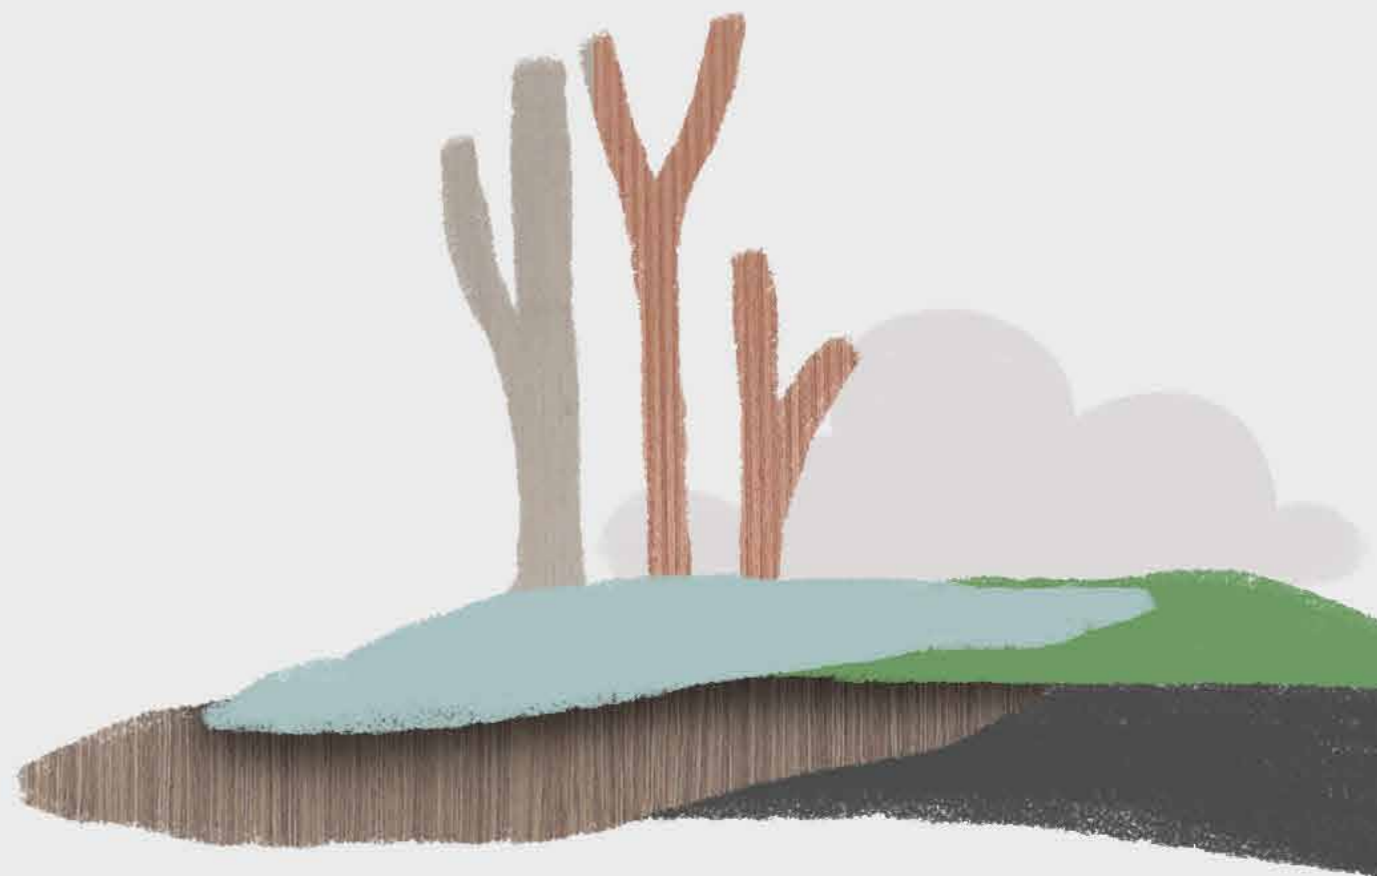

Every home is a unique thumbprint on the canvas of living spaces. Every wall, chink and crack is a mute storyteller; every story is different. At Greenply, every veneer tells a unique story of living. We are taking the art of aesthetic living one step further with Engineered Veneers. Affordable and eco-friendly, these veneers help you to replicate exotic design expressions for your home. They are marked by their grain consistency and uniformity of colour. Our products are manufactured using the finest grade facto inputs, in compliance with international quality standards.

BLAZE

Add an ethereal dimension to living spaces, a touch of light to transform familiar contours into sublime scapes. Blaze makes interior decor out of natural light.
